Petition in Circulation in the Interest of Postmaster Tolson.

Delay in Perfecting Rapid Transit Facilities Causes Anxiety-Baptist Sunday School Outing-Notes.

The close approach of July 1, the date fixed upon by the Post Office Department for the transfer of the Anacostia post office to the presidential class, has served to awaken much interest in the matter among the patrons of the office, and a very general desire has been expressed, both by republicans and democrats, that Postmaster Julius W. Tolson, who was appointed during the administration of President Cleveland, and whose commission does not expire for more than seventeen months, shall be allowed to serve out a four years' term, and a petition has been circulated asking for his retention. At the same time, however, there are several candidates for the position of post-master when the vacancy shall occur, and each is making a still hunt for the place. The fact that the law requires that a postmaster of the presidential class must devote his or her whole time to the duties of the office will, it is believed, remove from the list several gentlemen who otherwise would stand a good chance of securing the prise.

The Rapid Transit Problem.

A good many of the residents of Anacostia and vicinity who have heretofore been stanch friends and supporters of the Capital Railway Company, and have been hoping against hope that there would be no further delay in the matter of securing further delay in the matter of securing rapid transit between Congress Heights and the city, have reached the conclusion that it will be a good while before electric cars will be running over the line.

It has been more than a week since a trolley car was operated, and there does not seem to be much prospect that any will be run soon.

All sorts of excuses are offered for the delay. Sometimes it is the want of more powerful machinery in the power house; sometimes it is said the coils under the cars are not wound right, and still again it has been asserted that the wheels of the cars are not suitable for the bodies. That something is wrong with the wheels seems to a layman to be true, for whenever, thus far, a car has been operated on Monroe street it has been accompanied by a brilliant pyrotechnic display, which could not be satisfactorily explained, but which was the equal of aimost any Fourth of July celebration ever seen in the place.

The question of transfers, it is said still

In the place.

The question of transfers, it is said, still remains unsettled. The Capitol Traction Company stands ready, its officers say, to make all the necessary arrangements for the proposed transfer, but so far as is known, they have received no communica-tion on the subject from the officers of the Capital Railway Company. Sunday School Excursion. The officers, teachers and scholars of the Anacostia Baptist Sunday school, Rev. H. T. Stevenson, pastor, together with a large number of friends, had their annual excursion to Marshall Hall yesterday. The excursion was a great success, and almost every person in Anacostia and vicinity who could make it suit to leave his or her business for the day went along. Bicycle Rider Injured.

Mr. George C. Gertman, who is regarded as one of the best bicycle riders in Anacostia, is slowly recovering from the effects of an accident a few days ago. By some means Mr. Gertman, who at the time was riding along the railroad track, near Bladensburg, fell into a culvert about four feet deep. His wheel was demolished, and he was badly bruised and shaken up.

Declines Re-Election. It is reported that Mr. H. A. Linger, who has served as president of the Anacostia Building Lean Association for a number of years, will decline a re-election at the approaching annual meeting of the society, ssrs. W. N. Freeman and I Gude will be candidates for the vacancy.

GUESTS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA. Newspaper Men and Their Wives at Cape May. nce of The Evening Star.

CAPE MAY, N. J., June 24, 1897. Tomorrow, to make the season lively, Cape May, or at least the famous Stockton Hotel, will be filled with guests from Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. The working newspaper men, with their wives and lady friends, of those cities will be here about four hundred strong, as guests of the great Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The party will remain until Monday, and be under the personal care of Assistant General Passenger Agent George W. Boyd, and the Washington contingent will be under the eye of District Agent Colin Studds of Washington. The time will be passed in boating, driving and fishing in the daytime and hops in the evening. Sunday evening a sacred concert will be given.

cert will be given.

The warm weather wave which has come up out of the south has driven many people here in the past few days, and really made it possible to open the season with a crowd. The entertainment arranged for the guests who will be here for the next ten days is of a pleasant social order. There will be hops and dances innumerable. The outdoor sports are in full force, excepting base ball, and other events are being arranged for in numbers.

AGAINST THE PROJECTION.

Justice Horace Gray of the United States Supreme Court, the owner and occupant of premises 1001 I street. As has been stated in The Star the Dis today, secretary Alger said that after hear-ing the arguments of counsel, and a careful examination of the premises, No.1697 I street, he believed that the proposed extension "would be a gross infringement upon the rights of property owners on either side," and therefore he decided to approve the Republican Meeting. The republicans of Lakeland, Md., with a number from the surrounding country, held an enthusiastic meeting at that place last evening, which was addressed by W. H. Barion of this city.

Birgo-"That's right, Bobbie, but are you sure that was the reason?" "Yes, sir. That and the size of the boy."
